INAUGURAL GROUP OF LAW ENFORCEMENT GRADUATES FROM CRISIS INTERVENTION TRAINING (CIT)

Genesee County, Michigan – Genesee Health System is pleased to announce that the first group of officers have graduated from Crisis Intervention Training (CIT) offered by Genesee Health System. CIT training is being offered through a combination of grant funds and will be continued by the Genesee County Mental Health Millage that was passed in May.

“The officers completing the CIT training in Genesee County not only completed a 40-hour course in how to better interact with the general public experiencing a mental health crisis, but also bridged an important gap between law enforcement and mental health professionals forming relationships to work together as a team,” said Kailey Baker, GHS’ Behavioral Health Urgent Care- Crisis Intervention Team Supervisor

“Genesee County took an important step today, congratulating the inaugural graduating class of the CIT training program as the beginning of an enhanced partnership between GHS and Genesee County law enforcement,” said Jennifer McCarty, GHS’ Senior Director, Clinical Performance & Innovation.

Congratulations to the following inaugural law enforcement graduates:

Officer MacKenzie Dunklee – Mt. Morris Township Police Department
Sergeant Josh Belanger – Grand Blanc Township Police Department
Officer Lindsay Witthuhn – Grand Blanc Township Police Department
Officer Destiny Methner – Grand Blanc Township Police Department
Officer Tony Greenway – Burton Police Department
